

Instructor-led Training

The Edcomm Group has provided the financial services industry with traditional Instructor-Led Training (ILT) for 25+ years. Our professionally designed programs are matched with dynamic facilitators who are noted experts in their respective fields. Each classroom session is developed to provide a highly intuitive and interactive educational experience for the learner by equipping and maximizing intellectual capital, aligning employee, and organizational goals—resulting in positive bottom-line results.

Our ILT solutions offer:

- Edcomm Certified Instructors across the globe.
- Content from our vast Standard Library or Custom Developed courses.
- Multilingual facilitators and region-specific materials.
- Blended and multi-media options.
- Subject Matter Experts (SME) supporting each area of training concentration.
- Hands-on activities, interactive participation, and critical thinking through applied skills.
- Testing, evaluation, and certification.
